Jim Strickland

MAYOR OF MEMPHIS

Dear Colleagues,

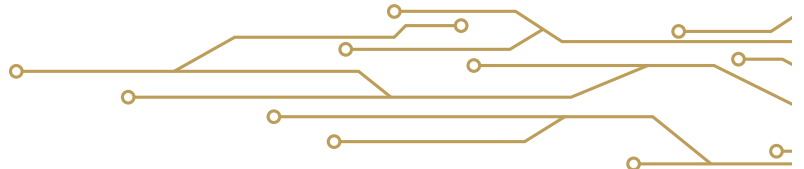

Each year, so many of you go above and beyond the call of duty to help our city. Because of that dedication, the Ovation Awards ceremony is always so special to me. The opportunity to honor the people that are the heart of our city's government is one the highlights of my job.

This celebration gives me the chance to show my gratitude to those employees who serve the citizens of Memphis with hard work, determination and commitment. Whether it's a Solid Waste employee who ensures their route is always promptly completed, or a 311 operator who patiently finds a solution for an upset citizen, our honorees prove day-in and day-out that they are the lifeblood of our government.

Thank you for what you do each day, and I'm proud to be a part of this chapter with you. Congratulations to you all.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jim Strickland

Alex Smith

CHIEF HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICER

Hello, City of Memphis employees and guests;
Welcome to our 2022 City of Memphis Ovation Awards!

This is our 7th year celebrating City of Memphis employees with this annual recognition ceremony. There's an air of gratitude as this year's awards are more meaningful than ever.

In 2020 and 2021, we faced unprecedented challenges with the pandemic and social justice, and you stepped up to the challenge. So on behalf of the citizens of Memphis, we say THANK YOU!

Thank you for putting citizens above yourself and letting your purpose fuel your passion for serving, protecting, and leading.

As we honor the loyalty and commitment of those employees who have reached significant career milestones, having served the City for 25 years or more, we also take this opportunity to honor those who have gone above and beyond, who worked while no one was watching, who saw a need and met it, no questions asked. This Ovation is for you.

I'd also like to thank those who made this year's virtual celebration a reality. Your commitment to creating a first-class awards experience is greatly appreciated as we work to keep our employees safe.

Thank you, our most esteemed City of Memphis employees, for making your mark on our great City!.

Stay safe.

Chief Alex Smith

Jeremy Pierre

Fox 13 News

MASTER OF CEREMONY

Jeremy Pierre comes to the Bluff City from the Crescent City, where he was prepped at the storied St. Augustine High School.

Continuing his education in the city of New Orleans, he graduated from Xavier University of Louisiana with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Mass Communication, broadcast concentration. Jeremy launched his reporting career as an intern at NBC affiliate WDSU Channel 6.

After working in his hometown, he then went on to become a general assignment reporter at KNOE in Monroe, La. News has always been a passion for Jeremy, and he strives to produce fair, accurate and balanced stories. He particularly enjoys sharing stories from the communities he serves. Jeremy is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and the National Association of Black Journalists.

He serves as a mentor in NABJ's high school journalism program. In 2013, he was named NABJ Region V student journalist of the year, and he was the first recipient of the Ted Holtzclaw Journalism Excellence Award in the NABJ multimedia short course. A musician at heart (drummer), Jeremy feels right at home in Memphis and is excited to share the stories of people from the area.

Aisha Dubose

SAXOPHONIST

Saxophonist Aisha Dubose is a philanthropist, promoter, and motivator passionate about sharing God's love through her unique musical expression.

As many people learn about her ministry, Aisha's name, assignment, and graceful personality continue to blossom. She believes that one of her assignments here on earth is to release a clarion call through divine sound through her horn. This sound will ultimately remind people of their divine purpose and give them a sense of peace and inner healing that only God can give.

After discovering that music was a part of her purpose, she has graciously accepted numerous opportunities to share her gift in various venues across Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee, and Mississippi, playing at churches, corporate functions, women empowerment events, private events, and more. No matter where she plays, she shares the love of God, not only through her musical talent but with her grace and class. She has opened for legendary artists and speakers such as Bill Winston, Ann Nesby, Lashon Pace, Tramaine Hawkins, Beverly Crawford, Wes Morgan and was also featured on the Bobby Jones Show.

Aisha is all about living authentically, keeping her intentions pure, as she always finds ways to encourage and support the development of everyday people through simple but kind gestures using her music as an outlet. The satisfaction she gets from indulging in her many passions has led her to bond with and inspire others worldwide to operate in their diving purpose with authenticity. "It seems that the world is building an appreciation for more than just talent but sound," she believes. "People are seeking purpose and hope for living, which is in Jesus Christ, I have to let the love of God show forth through my music and my lifestyle."

Bird Williams

MUSIC ENTERTAINMENT

Nicknamed "Bird" for his melodious style of singing, Bird Williams, a native Memphian, but well known throughout the United States, will take you anywhere you want to go in your mind, spirit and soul with his outrageous and soulful vocals.

Singing since the age of eight, "Bird" comes from a bloodline of gifted singers including his father, uncles, his baby brother and gospel recording artist. Pastor Chris Williams, III: He has that "old school" flow that pulls listeners directly into the songs he sings.

"Bird" has shared the stage with many great and timeless singers including: The Whispers, The Barkays, Karen White, Carl Thomas, Keith Sweat, Bobby Rush and one he truly admires, Mr. Frankie Beverly. Some of his hit songs include: Sometimes Man, Mr. Desire, Turn Around Electric Lady, Green Grass, Special One and Heaven. This is just the beginning!
